

"Communications Servers - That Put You in Control "

- .. of your business application via a rich supply of plug-in software modules including, Distributed Audio Conferencing, Voice Mail, IVR (Interactive Voice Response), FAX-on-demand, CRM, Call Centre Solutions, Distance Learning, Least Cost Routing, AudioTex, Internet accessibility - Web 'Call Me Back', text to speech, voice recording, PBX connect etc. etc.
- .. of the feature rich Computer Telephony technology because CallHandler-720 has a standards based, modular, open, scalable architecture enabling rapid application development and deployment and ease of set-up and maintenance
- .. of your applications via our pre-configured products which incorporate graphical drag-and-drop configuration tools, or specify a customised version to suit your special needs, or develop your own solutions using our function rich developer packs and APIs
- .. of size and scalability with options for 4 to 720 lines per chassis - analogue and/or ISDN, with options for many thousands via clustering technology. Start small and then grow big keeping original application software
- .. of system management over LAN/WAN via browser based configuration Controls
- .. of the customisation via Microsoft Windows NT COM object programming interfaces that support Visual C/C++, Visual Basic, JAVA etc.
- .. of the integration with existing PBX and LAN/WAN Computer networks and databases through the use of open standards systems architecture
- .. of your expenditure through choice of purchase options, which include complete, installed and tested, or software only supply